ORAL JUDGEMENT (Per Patel, J.)

MR. K.D. Gandhi, learned advocate appearing for Nanavati & Nanavati Associates, advocates for the respondent units states that Matangi Industries have their own arrangement for storage of hazardous waste material and are maintaining the records properly. He further states that Nayna Dyechem is closed since long and there is no question of this unit storing any hazardous waste. He further states that the remaining four units, Alpanil Industries, Assish Chemicals, Tapship Industries and Meghmani Dyes & Intermediates are willing to pay a sum of Rs.20,000/- each (in all Rs.80,000/-) for the default committed by them within a period of two weeks from today. The aforesaid units are directed to pay the aforesaid amount within two weeks and the Registry is directed to deposit it in the default account.

2. Assurance is given to the Court that henceforth all the units will see that hazardous waste is stored in accordance with law and no breach will be committed. Undertaking to be filed by all the units within a period of two weeks from today.

3. All these applications are disposed of accordingly.
